to the tune of "My Darling Clementine"

In the country, it's so peaceful.

Rural places are so great.

We'll see farms and open spaces.

Let's go investigate!

In the city, it's so noisy.

Urban places are so great.

We can walk through friendly neighborhoods.

Let's go investigate!

to the tune of "She'll be Comin' Round the Mountain"

Ascend to outer space.

While in orbit, they explore

That strange new place.

They learn new things every day.

When they descend,

Each one has a happy face.

Tranquil Nights

to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne"

Camping out is lots of fun.

Gaze at a galaxy of stars

Away from city lights.

We might see wildlife like deer,

And hear spring peepers peep.

Curled up inside our sleeping bags,

We'll get a good night sleep.

The Arid Desert

to the tune of "Billy Boy"

Oh, where do you live,

Lizard, Owl, Snake, and Hawk?

Oh, where do you live,

Mouse and Cactus?

In the arid desert land,

Where the ground is golden sand.

It's a landform without precipitation.

Where to Inquire

to the tune of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game"

Everybody has questions.

Some are big; some are small.

How does a sturdy oak grow so high?

Spiders spin delicate webs. How and why?

Never be afraid to inquire.

Just ask someone who might know.

Or go look it up in a book.

Watch your smart self grow.

You'll be helping

To make a courageous rescue.

What is good for my survival

Is a partnership with you.

When working to construct something

Original and new.

Letters from Me

to the tune of "The More We Get Together"

For letters from me.

Or someone will consume you

On their dinner plate.

Generous Friends

to the tune of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game"

Is what you have so abundant,

That you have more than you need?

What are some ways that you can share?

Is there a way to assist friends?

Do you have an idea or two?

And when you need something from friends,

They will share with you.

to the tune of "Oh Where Has My Little Dog Gone?"

Just excel in new ways to think.

With a little research, a peanut becomes

Paper, milk and ink.

to the tune of "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star"

These are my favorite things:

Grandma's doll, Aunt Mary's rings.

Grandpa's sweater, Dad's old hat.

Mommy's sled. Great Uncle's bat.

I preserve these things with pride.

I think objects that are old

Are more valuable than gold.

All the treasures here with me

It helps us know our way.

Our new home is a fine home.

It will be so nice to stay.

Weather here is so strange.

Every new day brings a change.
